Benediction

What a Blessing! On Monday we had a caravan travel to Betty Jane Learning Center to pick up canned goods that were collected by the students. Their donations, of 432 items will help families for Thanksgiving and Christmas. A special thank you, to those who came on Monday to collect, sort, and transport the food items. Thank you for caring and making a difference to the families in this community.

Next Sunday

The Hanging of the Greens will be on Sunday, November 27th following worship. If you can stay a short time to help, it will be appreciated See Helen Stager with your questions.

The Christmas giving tree is now located in the Gathering Area with children's names given to us by the Betty Jane Learning Center. At this writing we have 12 names left on the tree. The children are from families who are struggling at this time. Please choose a name/names from the tree for a child so they may celebrate Christmas. All gifts (Valued at $25.00) are due December 11th. Please wrap your gifts and place the white tag on the outside of the box. Thank you for helping to make a difference in the life of a child. Please see Rose with your questions.
